ORGANIZATIONAL BACKGROUND

Resilience is an independent, nonprofit organization dedicated to the healing and empowerment of sexual assault survivors through nonjudgmental crisis intervention counseling, individual and group trauma therapy, and medical and legal advocacy in the greater Chicago metropolitan area. Resilience provides public education and institutional advocacy in order to improve the treatment of sexual assault survivors and to effect positive change in policies and public attitudes toward sexual assault. Established in 1974, Resilience serves over 2,000 survivors of sexual violence and their loved ones annually. Resilience has a main office in downtown Chicago, a community-based office in Austin, and several co-locations within partner organizations across the city.

GENERAL ROLE DESCRIPTION

The Sexual Assault Multi-Disciplinary Team (MDT) Advocate is responsible for providing crisis intervention, emotional support, medical and legal advocacy, and appropriate referrals/linkages to sexual assault victims/survivors and their significant others through the emergency department of partner hospitals, telephone crisis calls, and my appointment at Chicago Police Department's Area North Detective Division, where the position is co-located. This position provides institutional advocacy with the Chicago Police Department and Cook County State's Attorney's Office. The ideal candidate is enthusiastic about being on site at a police station and collaborating and building relationships with law enforcement. This position is part of the on-call staff rotation providing 24-hour crisis response to affiliated hospitals, and is an essential part of the Advocacy Services Program.

This position part of the Cook County Sexual Assault Multi-Disciplinary Team funded by a grant from the Illinois Criminal Justice Information Authority that began in 2016. The MDT is coordinated by the Cook County State's Attorney Office with the focus of improving the criminal legal response to sexual assault.
