

September 25, 2019

Dear Friend,

On Rosh Hashanah, we at the JCPA start the New Year by recommitting ourselves to the important work that is every bit as relevant today as it was when we were founded 75 years ago.

We are:

The primary convener and consensus-builder of the organized Jewish community,

A network of 125 grassroots community relations councils and 17 national Jewish agencies, including all four denominations of American Judaism.

A powerful intergroup partner with minority, faith and civic leaders locally and nationally.

A trusted voice with policy makers on social justice issues and Israel advocacy.

These are critical times for the Jewish community. Antisemitism, bigotry and intolerance flourish in this polarized political environment and JCPA is on the front lines of the fight to ensure the security and well-being of the Jewish community.

We cannot do this work without you. Please consider making a generous donation to JCPA at this time of renewal. Click here to donate online or visit jewishpublicaffairs.org/Donate.

Shanah Tovah. May this be a happy, healthy, and peaceful New Year for us all.

Michael Fromm
JCPA Chair

David Bernstein
JCPA President and CEO

JCPA prepares for our Leadership Mission to Israel.

JCPA member councils and agencies vote on policy priorities at our national conference.

JCPA organizes more than 350 Jewish groups to publicly pressure the Administration to end family separation.

JCPA lobbies in Washington, DC for a budget to help the most vulnerable.

JCPA launches a Criminal Justice Reform Initiative to engage the Jewish community in civil rights.