Urge your Legislators to support the Afghan Adjustment Act

Americans served with Afghans for two decades in Afghanistan. Our military fought side-by-side with them and saw firsthand their courage and dedication. They risked their lives helping our troops and significantly contributed to the U.S. mission.

We promised to stand by our allies who, often at risk to themselves and their families, publicly defended democratic rights. Passing the Afghan Adjustment Act assures that American commitments will be honored.

Congress must pass legislation that will allow Afghans who were evacuated from Afghanistan (and those still awaiting) to have an opportunity to seek lawful permanent residence in the United States.
